

THE CAMP

JUNE 6—JULY 8, 2011

Join us for our fifteenth unforgettable summer as FHCT's Summer Performing Arts Teen Camp prepares for an exciting, fun-filled adventure in the performing arts!

All experience levels will learn valuable theatrical skills, including audition techniques, stage movement, dance, mime, vocal training, introduction to film and video commercials. Not to mention, students have a wonderful time and make new friends!

Teen camp is open to students entering seventh grade through high school seniors. Enrollment is limited. Classes are held Monday through Friday 10am to 4pm.

THE SHOW

3 PERFORMANCES: JULY 8, 9 & 10

Throughout the course of the camp, students will have the opportunity to audition for and rehearse a fully-staged musical comedy. All students will perform in this production and will play to the public for three unforgettable and exhilarating performances!

THE STAFF AND SUPERVISION

This is the fifteenth year of FHCT's Summer Performing Arts Teen Camp, and while in New York City, all students will be chaperoned at a ratio of one chaperone to every five students, assuring safety and discipline.

FHCT's Summer Performing Arts Teen Camp is staffed by experienced professionals including acclaimed Valley director Peter J. Hill and one of the Valley's finest choreographers, Noel Irick. Both are multiple arizoni award winners for excellence in theater. Long-time Executive Director of FHCT, Val Stasik is always an enthusiastic participant in the summer camp and NYC trip and is available for additional support.

FHCT has offered 24 years of award-winning theater and outstanding performance arts education and experience. Visit our website at www.fhct.org for more information about our theater.
